DISTRICT CONFERENCE REPRESENTATION.

THE following rule was adopted at the Annual Conference in Shelbyville in 1883, and has been the law since:

The District Conference, in addition to its clerical delegates provided for in the law of the Church, shall be composed of the recording steward and one delegate for every one hundred members; provided that each pastoral charge shall be entitled to two delegates, the delegates to be elected by Quarterly Conference at its first or second session of each year.

RULES OF ORDER FOR 1903.

1. The regular hour of meeting shall be 8:30, and adjourn at 12. A majority of those present and voting may extend the session temporarily, but the hour of meeting shall not be changed except by a two-thirds vote. Special afternoon or evening sessions may be ordered by a majority vote.

2. The presiding officer shall cause the session to be opened promptly with divine service, and after the reading and approval of the journal the Chair shall call the disciplinary questions according to his discretion, subject to the order of the day.

3. Special committees ordered by the Conference shall be appointed by the Chair, unless otherwise provided for.

4. When the report of a committee is under discussion, a representative of the committee shall have the right to close the discussion, and the call of the previous question shall be subject to that right.

5. The presiding officer shall decide all questions of order, subject to an appeal to the Conference. When such appeal is taken, the person making the appeal shall be allowed to state the ground of his appeal, and the Chair the ground of his decision. Otherwise than this, the vote shall be taken without debate.

6. Every resolution shall be in writing, signed by at least two members, and every substitute and amendment or report of a committee shall be in writing.

7. A report, resolution, or other paper shall be considered in possession of the Conference when it has been presented to and received by the Conference and read by the Secretary, and such document cannot be withdrawn without the consent of a majority of the Conference present and voting.

8. In the disposition of matter before the Conference, the following motions shall have precedence: (1) The previous question. (2) Lie on the table. (3) Postpone to definite time. (4) Commit. (5) Amend. (6) Substitute. (7) Indefinite postponement. (8) It shall be in order to offer an amendment to an amendment, and one amendment to a substitute. Should a motion assume this shape, the order of voting shall be as follows: (a) On the amendment to the amendment; (b) on the amendment, thus perfecting the main question; (c) on the amendment to the substitute; (d) on the substitute; (e) on the main question.

9. Every member shall, when desiring to speak, arise from his seat and respectfully address the President, and shall not be interrupted when speaking unless called to order by the President or by a member of the Conference through the President. By permission of the Conference a member may explain, if he claims to be misrepresented.

10. No member shall speak more than twice on the same question, nor more than fifteen minutes at one time, without leave of the Conference; nor shall any member speak more than once until every member choosing to speak shall have spoken.

11. Every member who is within the bar when a question is put shall vote, unless the Conference excuse him. No member shall be allowed to vote who is not within the bar when the question is put.

12. Whenever a member shall move the "previous question," the Chair shall demand, "Shall the question now be put?" and the vote on such motion shall be taken without debate. If a majority of the members voting sustain the call, the Chair shall put the question then pending without debate, except as provided in Rule 4. See No. 8 (1) and (2).

13. A motion to reconsider may be made on the day of the vote or the next day after (immediately after the reading of the journal) by any member who voted with the majority.

14. On demand of one-fifth of the members of the Conference, a recorded vote by yeas and nays shall be taken.

15. A motion to adjourn made by a member entitled to the floor shall always be in order, and shall be taken without debate.

16. These rules shall not be changed or suspended except by a majority of two-thirds of all the members present and voting.

CONFERENCE JOURNAL.

FIRST DAY.

MURFREESBORO, TENN., October 7, 1903.

Opening.—The Tennessee Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, convened in its ninetieth session in the Methodist Church at Murfreesboro, Tenn., at 9 A.M. October 7, 1903. ## SUPPLEMENT—REPORTS ADOPTED.

I. EDUCATION.

REPORT No 1.

GENERAL BOARD OF EDUCATION.

The Board of Education have examined carefully the communications referred to them from the General Board of Education and the Correspondence School. We are highly gratified to note the many evidences of increased interest in the cause of Christian education throughout our Church as shown by the last annual report of Dr. J. D. Hammond, Secretary of the General Board. We are pleased to have him with us at this session of our Conference, and pledge him and the General Board of Education our support in their efforts to further the important interests of the Church which have been committed to them. We would call especial attention to the work of the General Board of Education along the following lines—viz., their efforts (1) to properly correlate and classify our schools; (2) to eliminate schools that are unnecessary and establish others in locations where they are needed; (3) to coöperate with State and county Boards of Education in multiplying and improving the rural public schools of the South, especially those located in sparsely settled and illiterate sections of the country; (4) to place all our schools upon a firm financial basis and make them equal to the best that are provided by the State and other Christian Churches; and (5) to arouse a deeper interest in the importance and necessity of a better trained ministry in order to meet the demands of the day in which we live and supply our pulpits with ministers who are at once cultured and consecrated, and will show themselves capable and wise leaders of their people in whatsoever tends to the upbuilding of the kingdom of Christ. With all these lines of Christian education, which the General Board is emphasizing at this time, we are in hearty sympathy, and pledge to them our coöperation and support.

CORRESPONDENCE SCHOOL AND SUMMER INSTITUTE.

We are also gratified to learn of the great success of the Correspondence School established by the General Conference and conducted jointly by the Board of Education and the faculty of the Biblical Department of Vanderbilt University. The fact that as many as two hundred and fifty-three young ministers of the Church have carried on a course of study in this school during the first year of its existence is full vindication of the wisdom of this movement to provide a more satisfactory and effective method of guiding our young ministers in prosecuting their studies both in the prescribed course of undergraduate study and in postgraduate reading and study. We again commend this school to the young ministers of this Conference. The Summer Institute of Biblical and Theological Study held its fifth session last summer, and had an attendance of about one hundred and fifty. It is now correlated with the Correspondence School, to the advantage both of the Institute and of the Correspondence School. The Institute deserves our continued encouragement and support.

REPORT No. 2.

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION.

The cause of Christian education demands at this time our best thoughts and our hearty support. The Church's great commission embraces two commands, which perhaps transcend all others in importance—viz., that of preaching and that of teaching. The distinction between these two modes of work for transforming human character and building up the kingdom of our Lord should not be too sharply drawn, for Christian education and preaching the gospel are but different methods of accomplishing the same great result. Nor can these two methods of Christian service ever be separated. No preaching can be true and scriptural that does not instruct and educate, and the teaching function of the ministry cannot be too strongly emphasized. On the other hand, no education is entitled to be called Christian education that does not work upon the heart as well as the head, and seek, through instruction addressed to the mind, to build up moral and Christian character. A true Christian preacher and pastor and a true Christian teacher can never be other than mutually helpful coworkers in the same great cause. The pulpit and the schoolroom are, if they be what they ought to be, consecrated coworkers and allies in the same noble work. No preacher can be true to his divine commission and not seek to build up Christian institutions of learning and give the Christian teacher his personal encouragement and his moral support. No Christian pastor can be true to his divine mission who does not, as he goes from house to house, seek to instruct parents as to their duty in the education of their children, and also seek to inspire and guide the young people of his Church and community in securing the best Christian education within their reach.

And what, let us ask, is Christian education? And who are entitled to be called Christian educators? Does the mere owning of the grounds and buildings of a school by the Church make it a Christian school? and if a man or woman is a teacher in such a school, does that entitle such teacher to be called a Christian educator? Far from it. A Christian educator is he who not only teaches the great moral and ethical principles of the Bible, but has them embodied in his own character and has Jesus Christ incarnated in his own heart and life, and who is seeking not merely to train the minds but to develop the moral character and make noble types of Christian manhood and womanhood out of his pupils. A Christian school is one that seeks by every possible means to surround its pupils with an atmosphere not only of literary culture and social refinement but of Christian ideals and influences that will make virtue attractive and easy and vice a thing to be hated and shunned. This is the type of school that our Church is seeking everywhere to establish and build up for its children and youth, and such schools the Church stands ready to indorse and support by every means at its command; and only such schools as measure up to this ideal have a right to ask the Church's indorsement and support. We believe that the highest scholarship and literary culture may be united with the sincerest piety and most perfect loyalty to Christ and the Church in both the teachers and those who are taught; and this is the educational ideal toward which the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, and the Tennessee Annual Conference are working. And this is what we mean when we say that we give the great cause of Christian education our indorsement and pledge to it our hearty support.

VANDERBILT UNIVERSITY.

The reports which have reached us from the various schools within the bounds of this Conference give gratifying evidence of increased attendance during the session which has just opened. Vanderbilt University bids fair to reach a total enrollment in all its departments of eight hundred or more for the year, about one-tenth of this number being students for the ministry. The Biblical Department of the University has been strengthened this year by the addition of a new chair, known as the Students' Chair of Biblical Theology and English Exegesis, the endowment of which has been raised largely from old students. The endowment, however, is as yet but small, and needs to be doubled in order to give full support to the one who is called to fill this chair. The time covered by the proposition of Mr. Samuel Cupples, of St. Louis, to give fifty per cent additional to whatever amount the Church at large should give to the Biblical Department of the University expired last November. We were disappointed in raising the one hundred thousand dollars that was asked of the Church under this proposition. We reported, however, something over forty-two thousand dollars, and he promptly paid the fifty per cent additional which he had pledged, amounting to something over twenty-one thousand dollars. About a thousand dollars has perhaps come in since. So that the Biblical Department secured altogether in cash as a result of the Twentieth Century Movement about sixty-five thousand dollars, being a little more than one-third of the amount which was sought, and which was greatly needed to equip this department as it should be in order to meet the demands upon it. This department of the University has special claims upon the Church, and deserves its support in raising the money necessary to meet its needs.

OTHER SCHOOLS.

While Vanderbilt University is the only institution of learning in the bounds of this Conference owned and controlled by the Church, and hence calling properly for notice in this report, nevertheless the Board of Education desires to make grateful recognition of the work that is being done for our Church and for the preachers of this Conference by a large number of schools within our bounds which are not owned by the Church, and over which the Church has no control whatever. Many of these private schools have principals and teachers who are members of our Church and who are generously giving free tuition to our preachers for their sons and daughters, and also to students for our ministry. These favors we fully appreciate as a Conference, and we hope our preachers and members will always, other things being equal, give these schools which are owned and controlled by members of our Church the preference in the education of their children, and also their indorsement and support, as far as they feel is proper and right, in commending them to the patronage of others.

AID TO UNDERGRADUATES IN THE CORRESPONDENCE SCHOOL.

Some of our young ministers in the undergraduate courses of study in the Conference are on hard fields and receive such a small salary as to make it very difficult, if not impossible, to meet any expense but that of their actual living. It appears that some of these have been debarred from joining the Correspondence School because of the expense involved, which, though it is only $10, they have felt unable to meet. We recommend that the Board of Education be authorized to meet this expense in the case of all undergraduates whose salaries in their judgment make such assistance proper and reasonable. It is the judgment of the Board that the small amount of money involved in this provision will be wisely spent, and it can do so out of its available funds without cutting off any other worthy applicants for aid.

A large amount of our funds for this year has been applied to assisting our preachers whose salaries are small in the education of their daughters. We feel that this is money worthily and wisely invested, and a use of our educational fund which should commend it to the liberal support of our people.

TWENTIETH CENTURY FUND.

The Twentieth Century Fund has been increased during the year by the addition of $700.62, of which amount $676.62 was specially directed to the Biblical Department of Vanderbilt University. That part of this fund (amounting now to something over $5,000) which is held for the proposed woman's dormitory at Vanderbilt University has been safely invested in first mortgage bonds on real estate, and yields an interest of six per cent. The Secretary and Treasurer of this fund, under the approval of the Executive Committee of the Board, is instructed to continue this investment in such form as will yield the largest income consistent with perfect security. The Secretary and Treasurer of this fund also holds $1,000 contributed by Dr. D. C. Kelley, and which has to its credit an interest of about $33. It is held subject to Dr. Kelley's direction, and is also invested with his approval at six per cent interest.

MONTEREY SCHOOL.

The Board of Education has been somewhat embarrassed to know what course it should recommend to the Conference with reference to the school located at Monterey. The deed to the property has in it a reversionary clause that has made us unwilling to recommend the investment of money there, which might be ultimately lost to the Church. We have, however, just received a proposition from the local managers of the school that makes it desirable that we should make further investigation as to what should be done, and a committee has been appointed to look into the matter and take definite steps looking either to enlarging and building up the school or else to giving up its management entirely to the local trustees. We hope to be able to report something definite and satisfactory to the Conference at its next session.

W. F. TILLET, President;

E. P. ANDERSON, Secretary.

II. SABBATH OBSERVANCE.

We render unto God our profound thanks for the institution of the Sabbath as a day of rest for the toiling ones of earth, and of special religious privileges to all his worshipers. That it has been of untold benefit to humanity cannot be successfully called in question, but it is a sad fact that multitudes of people disregard it, and care not to become its beneficiaries. In many particulars our government seems to have but little regard for the divine law of Sunday observance; some of the great financial corporations of the country are wholly indifferent to it; individuals without number do not restrain themselves in their business affairs on account of it; sporting characters are using the Sabbath to a large extent for their godless performances; and professed Christians in large numbers are not keeping it holy in the sense that they are commanded to do.

We believe that it is the duty of every God-honoring man to do what he can to put a stop to the desecration of the Sabbath, and rejoice that there is such an organization as the Sunday League of America that is engaged in this worthy undertaking. To the extent that we can, we promise our coöperation with this organization, and propose to be diligent in our efforts to impress upon all our people the importance of remembering the Sabbath to keep it holy. To this end we believe, also, that sermons on this subject should be preached in all our charges until all our people become thoroughly instructed in regard to it; therefore be it

Resolved: 1. That we as a Conference condemn, in unqualified terms, every form of Sabbath-breaking and the habit of those Church members who are not careful to keep it holy.

2. That it be made the duty of every pastor in our Conference to preach at least one sermon in each of his churches during the year on the divine law of the Sabbath.

H. B. BLUE, Chairman;

A. T. GOODLOE, Secretary.

III. BIBLE CAUSE.

"The American Bible Society continues to have a conspicuous share in the benevolent and missionary activities of this and other lands. It is the clearing house through which the Christian Churches of our republic in united fellowship are giving the Holy Scriptures to the needy millions of the world. An increasing demand comes from foreign shores, and to these appeals we are listening and giving help to the very best of our ability. It has come to pass that more than one-half of the issues of this society go in various tongues to supply the needs and desires of the destitute on distant shores. The issues during the past year have been nearly two millions, counting Bibles, Testaments, and portions. This is the largest annual issue in the history of the society." The total issues of the year, at home and abroad, amount to 1,993,558, an increase of 269,767 over those of last year. Of these, 734,649 were distributed in the United States; in foreign fields, 1,258,909. The funds of the society, received and expended for the year ending March 31, 1903, have reached to $412,406.64, a goodly increase on all lines. Of this amount, the Tennessee Conference paid last year, by voluntary subscriptions, the sum of $246.91, a decrease over the previous year of $12.15.

In view of the urgent needs pressing the American Bible Society at home and abroad for the wider circulation of the Holy Scriptures, we urge on our brethren a more careful presentation of this great cause and a more liberal contribution from every charge.

W. H. DOSS, President;

A. E. CLEMENT, Secretary and Treasurer.

IV. DISTRICT CONFERENCE RECORDS.

We, your Committee on District Conference Records, respectfully submit the following report:

Nashville District.—The order of arrangement of this record is not good. Many of the resolutions follow the signatures of the Secretary and Chairman. The caption is repeated at the top of each page, which your committee thinks unnecessary.

East Nashville District.—This record is neatly kept; penmanship excellent.

Lebanon District.—With the exception of slight omissions in punctuation, this record is well kept.

Clarksville District.—This record is in perfect order.

Murfreesboro District.—This record is neatly and accurately kept.

Fayetteville District.—This record is well written, but punctuation deficient.

Franklin District.—This record is neatly kept, but caption repeated at top of each page.

Columbia District.—This record is beautifully written and accurately kept.

Dickson District.—This record is very well kept.

Savannah District.—Not present.

J. A. BOSTICK, Secretary.

V. BOOKS AND PERIODICALS.

THE MIDLAND METHODIST.

The securing of the services of Rev. James A. Burrow, D.D., by the Commission of the Midland Methodist, whose entire time has been given to the editorial work of the paper, has proved a gratifying success. The columns of the paper are clean, crisp, and instructive. The circulation of the paper has had a net increase, as reported, of one thousand subscribers during the past year. As was anticipated, the publisher of our Conference organ, O. W. Patton, has enlarged the usefulness of the paper during the year by providing ample space both for the editor and the contributors. The paper is conservative, yet aggressive—aggressive against sin, and, being keenly alive to all the interests of the Church, deserves the joint support of the two Conferences whose zealous organ it is.

Resolved: 1. That we request the presiding bishop to continue Revs. W. R. Peebles, J. T. Curry, and J. L. Parkes members of the Joint Commission of the Midland Methodist.

2. That we indorse the election of James A. Burrow, D.D., as editor of the Midland Methodist for the ensuing year.

3. That we continue our hearty support of the paper as our Conference organ, and will seek to increase its circulation in our pastoral charges, believing that in so doing both people and pastor will be helped to larger usefulness in the Church.

THE PUBLISHING HOUSE.

The Book Agents' exhibit for the fiscal year ending March 31, 1903, was before us, as was Dr. Lamar, the Junior Agent, in person, who freely gave desired and valuable information to your committee.

We rejoice in the prosperity of the House, as quoted in the exhibit, which shows a net increase in total profits for the past year.

The Dallas Branch House reports net profits of $6,503.94. The Nashville House reports $29,857.08, thus making a total of net profits to the House of $36,361.02, with an increase in the value of sales of $16,053.48, and the net gain as in the foregoing figures. Deeper and more permanent does this great plant of the Church become the potent force of intellectual and evangelical life to the Church of our love and to the world, whose lost people we are seeking to recover.

Resolved, That we express our deep and abiding interest in the high grade of books being brought out by the House, and with commendable pride we are pleased to know that some of these books are the productions of the wealth of brain of Southern Methodist men and women—as, for instance, two of the very latest from the press, Bishop Hendrix's "Quillian Lectures" and Bishop Fitzgerald's "Fifty Years."

THE CHRISTIAN ADVOCATE.

This paper maintains a fine literary standard, is devotional and very excellent, and we think it is one of the best high-grade papers issued from the press of our country to-day. Its leaders, editorials, contributors, correspondents, general news; devotional—in fact, all departments that go to make up a first-class Church and family paper are to be found weekly in its columns. It is broadly connectional, and seeks to foster and conserve the great forces of mind and heart that have made the Methodist Church the admiration of the American people. It deserves the support of every family in Southern Methodism. Its high aim evidently is to store the mind with food convenient and to build the soul in the wealth of spiritual comfort and enlargement. During the year the circulation has increased 1,400 copies, making the present total circulation of the paper 15,550 copies.

Resolved, That the editors, Drs. Winton and Godbey, have our hearty coöperation in seeking to increase the circulation of the Christian Advocate amongst our people, and in urging our pastors to take personal supervision of the same in their several charges.

THE METHODIST REVIEW.

In his work, Dr. Tigert is thought-provoking and able. This periodical has also an able class of contributors. The editor's own work sparkles with the light of a student and a thinker. It should be the rival of other publications of its kind more pretentious but less meritorious than itself.

While not yet self-sustaining, the circulation of this periodical has increased by six hundred subscribers during the past year, which gives hope that it may yet be a source of revenue to our Publishing House.

GO FORWARD,

styled the organ of the Missionary Campaign, is edited by the Missionary Secretaries, Drs. Lambuth and Ward. It is an illustrated paper, devoted to missions and Church extension.

With a copy of this new candidate before us, it is surprising, in a sense, how much fresh news—how much of heroic deeds and daring—may be found in a single copy. As the organ of the Board of Missions, it is published monthly, and the fires its pages kindle crave to take the world for Christ in a day. We commend it most heartily to all our people.

THE EPWORTH ERA.

This organ of the League, edited by Dr. Du Bose, is versatile, genial, instructive, helpful, companionable. It compasses the life and possible usefulness, and the possibilities as well, of our young people. We cannot tell to-day what the morrow will be—to the life of the young man or woman who shall adopt its high precepts and splendid ideals, nor the Church of to-morrow, whose life breaks with the false luring of the world and wakes up in a day to the motto: "All our strength is in God."

We commend most earnestly the EPWORTH ERA to our young people, for whom this labor of love is given.

THE WOMAN'S MISSIONARY ADVOCATE AND OUR HOMES.

These papers, or magazines, edited by our devoted sisters, Mrs. Butler and Miss Helm, are meeting the special needs of the sacred interests committed into their hands. They merit prayer and substantial recognition. They glean where the strong or restless have been impatient. They too are helping us to bring the world to Christ, and with deep concern they are helping to house our preachers. Their publications richly merit a wider circulation.

SUNDAY SCHOOL LITERATURE.

Our Sunday school literature is of high grade. Every Methodist Sunday school should use our own literature. We note a gratifying increase in the circulation of our literature. Dr. Atkins gives us an instructive magazine, which should be in the hands of every teacher. If he can, in some way, let him encourage both grown people and children to carry their Bibles with them to the Sunday school.

The Children's Visitor.—This little paper is certainly a rich production. Equal fascination it seems to have for the aged man or woman or little child. In tone, noble; in spirit, Christlike. May it reach every Sunday school scholar in Southern Methodism!

JESSE CAGE, Chairman;

R. E. TRAVIS, Secretary.

VI. EPWORTH LEAGUE BOARD.

Your Epworth League Board submits the following report:

The Christian world is awake as never before to the great importance of utilizing the young life of the Church. It is the lofty aim of the Epworth League to impress, inspire, and direct the young life of our Church. God has vouchsafed his blessings upon the work and caused it to prosper so that its existence is no longer a problem. It is here to stay. With such a leader as Dr. Du Bose, we expect nothing but success. In fact, success has already been achieved. The past year has been the most prosperous in the history of the League. We rejoice to report that through the untiring energy of Dr. Du Bose the Era is now on a good financial basis, and will soon be self-sustaining. New Leagues have been organized, League literature has been widely circulated, and Rev. R. J. Craig has done efficient work among the Juniors.

The Annual League Conference, which met at Gallatin in June, was well attended, and proved to be one of the most interesting and inspiring yet held. Living issues were ably discussed, and Leaguers returned to their work with increased zeal.

As a result of study and careful arrangement, the League work has been correlated into five departments—viz.: (1) The League Devotional Studies, which will be printed in one yearly list in advance, instead of in half-year installments as heretofore. (2) The Bible Circle Classes, which are intended to give a systematic study of the Bible, with good helps at a small cost, in three years. (3) The League Institute Studies, which give valuable instruction in the doctrines and polity of our Church by means of a series of booklets issued for that purpose. (4) The Epworth League Reading Course, which is superior to any previous Course, can be had for $2.25. (5) The Supplementary Reading Course, which is a tiny library of three, costing $1.

We desire to call attention to the Junior Quarterly, issued at ten cents per quarter, and which not only discuss the lessons but give other information as well. We recommend: (1) That we, as preachers and presiding elders, do all in our power to forward the movement by making our Annual League Conference a success, by organizing Leagues, by increasing the circulation of the excellent League literature now being issued; (2) that R. J. Craig be confirmed as Superintendent of the Junior Department; (3) that the General League Secretary and President of the Tennessee League Conference either visit in person or appoint representatives to visit each District Conference to present the claims of the League.

A. M. TRAWICK, JR., President;

B. L. LYLE, Secretary.

VII. TEMPERANCE.

The rapidly growing sentiment, both in Church and State, against the great evils of intemperance, which is expressed by the enacting of wholesome temperance laws, together with a determined purpose of the best citizens of our State that these laws shall be enforced, gives abundant cause for thanksgiving to Him who has said: "No drunkard shall inherit eternal life." We heartily indorse the good work which is being done by the Committee of One Hundred in the city of Nashville, and we believe that good citizenship demands that a like work be done in all parts of our State where our temperance laws are not strictly observed. In our fight against intemperance we should not fail to use our best efforts to suppress the sale and use of patent medicines which produce drunkenness; and our fight should also include putting away from among us the use of cigarettes, and we should discourage the use of tobacco in any form. This war should be waged also against the opium habit, which is making inroads on individuals, families, and communities, disqualifying them for the best service in any department of life's duties, secular or religious; therefore be it

Resolved: 1. That the Tennessee Conference gives its hearty support to every legitimate effort that is being made to suppress the above-named evils.

2. That we heartily indorse the efforts now being made by the State and National Antisaloon Leagues, who are so faithfully fighting for the cause of temperance.

3. That the Tennessee Conference hereby reaffirms all of its former utterances against intemperance as adopted heretofore at the various Conferences for the last ten years, and renews its pledge to continue the fight against these evils till they shall be driven from our land.

S. M. CHERRY, Chairman,

JNO. H. NICHOLS, Secretary.

VIII. JOINT BOARD OF FINANCE.

REPORT NO. I.

We submit herewith the annual report of the Board of Trust for Superannuated Preachers and Widows and Orphans of your Conference. The same has been approved by us, and is handed you for action thereon. We respectfully recommend the adoption of the same.

To the Bishop and Ministers of the Tennessee Annual Conference.

Dear Brethren: The Board of Trust for Superannuated Preachers, Widows, and Orphans of the Tennessee Annual Conference send greetings. Since the session of the last Conference this Board and the Conference have been sadly afflicted in the death of the President of this Board, Brother B. W. Macrae, of Clarksville, Tenn. Since the organization of the Board he has been a member of the Board, and for many years President. He was a very valuable and worthy man, a true gentleman, and a humble Christian. He most cheerfully gave his time and services to the Church for many years on the Board of Church Extension and this Board, as well as his local Church at Clarksville. His work was well done and duly appreciated. He lived right, and when he went away all was well. We lament his death, but rejoice in hope.

We are pleased to report the election of Horace E. Palmer, of Murfreesboro, Tenn., as a member of the Board and as President, and ask the Conference to confirm his election.

IX. BOARD OF MISSIONS.

With thankful hearts we note the fact that this year has been one of advancement along every line. Our working forces have been made stronger, our membership at home and abroad increased, and the contributions of the Church have been larger than for previous years, and our Conference is awaking to her duty and to a knowledge of her capabilities in the work of the Master. We thank God for that degree of success with which he has crowned our efforts.

We also note with pleasure the vast work done by the Woman's Home and Foreign Missionary Societies, and again urge our pastors to help these faithful women in their labors by organizing societies in works where they have none, and by circulating their literature.

We commend the work done for missions in our Sunday schools and Epworth Leagues, and urge them to greater and better organized effort along these lines. We hail with gladness our missionary paper, Go Forward, and commend it to every home in Methodism.

We note with sorrow that there is still a deficit in our Conference assessments for missions, and that some of our pastors and many of our people seem never to have realized the great personal responsibility in these matters, and the great God-given privilege and opportunity for doing good and glorifying God in this great work.

We urge all pastors to press upon their people the duty and privilege of liberal and systematic giving to all our missionary work.

Resolved, therefore, in view of the fact that our foreign missionary assessment for the coming year is only a few hundred dollars more than the total amount collected for this cause the past year, that we, as pastors and presiding elders, put forth earnest and untiring efforts to meet our obligation in full; that we strive to create a missionary conscience in all our people by holding missionary mass meetings and rallies, and especially by putting Go Forward in every home possible.

Amount assessed for foreign missions, $14,140; domestic missions, $9,000. Apportioned to the districts as follows: (See table of assessments, p. 44.)

The appropriations for domestic missions are as follows:

X. CHURCH EXTENSION.

We are pleased to announce an increase in our collections over last year's report, and congratulate the Conference that we are able to pay almost the full amount of every worthy application made to our Board.

We earnestly insist that our pastors endeavor to collect the Church extension assessments in full on their various charges.

We believe there are none of the collections of more importance than this. We must have houses in which to worship God and preach his gospel, and without this fund many people must necessarily do without the preached word.

The following appropriations are made:

	Value of Church.	Appropriation.
Greenbrier, Robertson County, East Nashville District..	$ 2,000 00	$ 100 00
Martha Chapel, Houston County, Dickson District...	1,000 00	50 00
Blue Creek, Humphreys County, Dickson District....	1,025 00	200 00
Pleasant Valley, Stewart County, Dickson District...	500 00	50 00
Burns, Dickson County, Dickson District.....	1,000 00	150 00
Union, Wilson County, Lebanon District.....	1,000 00	100 00
Temperance Hall, DeKalb County, Lebanon District..	900 00	150 00
Stampers Chapel, Stewart County, Clarksville District.	900 00	175 00
Tarsus, Montgomery County, Clarksville District....	800 00	175 00
Lynnville, Giles County, Columbia District.....	4,500 00	275 00
Salem, Rutherford County, Murfreesboro District....	2,350 00	175 00
Asbury, Rutherford County, Murfreesboro District...	1,200 00	175 00
Thomas, Williamson County, Franklin District.....	3,000 00	150 00
Napier, Lewis County, Savannah District.....	600 00	100 00
	$20,870 00	$2,025 00

The appropriations made to Blue Creek, Burns, and Thomas are made on condition that the houses be completed and all indebtedness be paid less the amount appropriated, and evidence of same be furnished the Treasurer of this Board before the money is paid.

The appropriation made to Napier is made on condition that the Treasurer of this Board be furnished with the County Register's certificate of registration of deed to church lot before money is paid.

This Conference has been assessed for Church Extension for 1903-04 the amount of $5,050, which has been distributed. (See table of assessments, p. 44.)

XII. THE SUNDAY SCHOOL BOARD.

It is encouraging to all Sunday school workers to note that the reports of the pastors show that the accessions to the Church are largely from the ranks of the Sunday school. This witnesseth that our labors are not in vain. The past year has, in several aspects, marked a decided advance in Sunday school interests. The report of the Statistical Secretary shows that the Sunday schools paid, during the past year, for missions $2,243, nearly $500 more than reported the previous year; and on Children's Day they paid $1,351, being nearly $300 more than they paid last year, which, up to that time, was the largest Children's Day collection this Conference ever reported. It is pleasant to report that this interest is growing from year to year. During the past year we have furnished literature to seventy-nine Sunday schools.

We are pleased to note that many churches are manifesting increased interest in the observance of Children's Day. Yet we are surprised to know that at this late day some pastors and superintendents seem almost to ignore it. Please allow us again to call your attention to paragraph 248 of the Discipline, making its observance imperative, not optional.

We hope that no pastor will fail to observe Children's Day, remembering that this is the only source of revenue to the Sunday School Board. The Board will furnish gratis Children's Day programmes to all our schools applying for them. Make all applications for aid to Brother Len K. Hart, Secretary of the Board, Nashville. Application blanks may be procured from the Secretary or the Publishing House. All applications for aid should be made upon these blanks.

Do not keep the money until Conference, but send it as soon as collected to Rev. J. T. Curry, Treasurer, Nashville. He will make proper distribution. Thus we are enabled to use the fund during the current year.

That there may be a uniform system in reporting the number of Sunday school scholars, it is now the law that all who have attended the school during the year, and were enrolled as scholars, should be enumerated, even if they are not members of the school at the close of the Conference year, when the reports are made up. Secular schools, in their annual catalogues, include all pupils whose names have been enrolled during the year.

We recommend that three Institutes be held next year, and that the times and places for holding them be referred to the Executive Committee of this Board.

We recommend that the Home Department, as an auxiliary and support of the school, have more general recognition on circuits and in stations.

We commend the Bible Teachers' Study Circle, or system of training teachers, to all our pastors and superintendents.

We recommend the use of the Bible in our Sunday schools by all our superintendents and teachers, and that the classes be inspired to recite the lesson without the use of their lesson helps.

We call attention of the presiding elders to paragraph 117 of the Discipline, requiring them to furnish this Board the names and post office addresses of the Sunday school superintendents.

It is the duty of all our schools to take a collection every Sunday for the purpose of buying their literature, except that the collection of one Sunday in each month be paid to the preacher in charge as missionary money, which may be credited on his missionary assessment. The Sunday school scholars should be trained to give, so that a generation may be reared which shall consider it a reproach not to contribute to the support of the institutions of the Church. We recommend the distribution in the Sunday school of missionary literature.

Our schools should use our own literature, and each teacher should be furnished with the Sunday School Magazine, and we should endeavor to place the Visitor in every family represented in the school.

The superintendents should consider the importance of Decision Day, in which the members of the school may be given an opportunity to publicly express their determination to lead a Christian life. Let it not be forgotten that the great object of the Sunday school is to bring the children to Christ and to prepare them to become intelligent and useful members of the Church.

The Executive Committee is directed to appoint one delegate and alternate from each presiding elder's district to their District Conferences.

As Brother J. Rush Goodloe, a valuable and efficient member of this Board, is transferred from this Conference to another field, we pray God's blessing upon him, and commend him to those among whom his lot may be cast.

With gratitude to our Heavenly Father for past successes and invoking his aid and asking the cheerful coöperation of our preachers, we enter upon the work of the new year determining with larger experience to accomplish more in the future than in the past.

XIV. MEMOIRS.

JEROME BONAPARTE ANDERSON, son of David G. and Martha Jane Anderson, was born July 11, 1830, in Giles County, Tenn. He was converted and joined the Methodist Church in September, 1845. He was admitted on trial into the Tennessee Annual Conference in October, 1854, at Florence, Ala. He served the following charges: Shoal Circuit, one year; Somerville Circuit, one year; McMinnville Station, one year; Cumberland Iron Works Station; Red River Circuit, two years; Waverly Circuit, one year; Montgomery Circuit, two years; Red River Circuit, one year; Asbury Circuit, one year; McMinnville District, one year; Cedar Hill Station, two years; La Fayette Circuit, one year; Trinity and Taylor's Chapel, one year; Olivet and Pleasant Valley Station; Richland Circuit; Petersburg Circuit; Spring Hill Circuit; Lynnville Circuit; New Hope Circuit; Pisgah Circuit; Trinity Circuit; Pleasant Valley Circuit; Mooresville Circuit. December 1, 1902, having been on the superannuate list for a number of years, his work on earth closed, and the faithful servant was called by his Lord to rest from labor in the shade of the tree of life. His early opportunities, from an educational point of view, were above the average. Having made diligent use of them, when thrown out on the world, he had a mind trained to deal with perplexing problems, skilled in the pursuance of a long line of thought. He was a student all his life. His appearance before an audience was an announcement of the fact that something of value was in store for them. As a preacher, he was strong. To follow him, leading on with his argument, was to move forward slowly but surely to conviction so far as the subject under consideration was concerned. Modesty was one of his leading qualities, and a gentle bearing declared him to be a Christian. Sincerity was in his soul, and his deep blue eyes were the windows through which it shone to bless his fellow-man. Faithful in the discharge of every duty, reliability was one of his characteristics, while brotherly kindness was heard in the words of his mouth as well as felt in the touch of his hand. He was married to Miss Emily Butts, of Robertson County, Tenn. To them seven children were born. Five are now living, together with their mother, to mourn the loss of a devoted husband and loving father. Another good man has reached the end of his journey, another pilgrim his eternal home. His faith in God supported him in prosperity and adversity, in sickness and in health, in life and in death. Loyal to the Church, he obeyed her orders. The superannuates have seen the chariot of fire stop for one of their number, and the light around the ascending saint has made them think of the beautiful home that will be ready for them—the Father's house above.

On that bright and happy shore,
We some day our friends will meet;
We will weep, no, nevermore,
When our loved ones we shall greet.

Those we loved are waiting now;
They have crossed the river wide;
Close beside the throne they bow,
Safe beyond the surging tide.

While we gaze with longing eyes
Upward to the Golden Gate,

God, in love, his grace supplies
That we may his pleasure wait.

We will labor, we will love
While we journey here below:
Soon we'll reach our home above,
And the ways of God will know.

R. J. CRAIG.

THOMAS B. MARKS, son of Edward and Lucy Marks, was born in Giles County, Tenn., February 27, 1822. He was converted and joined the M. E. Church, South, October 6, 1840, and was admitted into the Tennessee Conference on trial at Huntsville, Ala., in 1845, making him a member of the Conference fifty-eight years and a few weeks, thirty-seven years of which he was effective, eighteen years supernumerary, and three years superannuated. Brother Marks was truly a man of God, and did all of the work of a Methodist preacher faithfully and well. He was known throughout Bedford County, and married and buried more people than any man ever in that county. The people in the Church and out loved him as a father in Israel. He was a true father and husband. As a citizen and friend he had no superior. I was with him in his last days, and, despite his awful physical suffering, his faith was strong in Christ, and not a cloud intervened between him and God; and his life was beautiful and serene and filled with the sunshine of God's love. Truly a good man has quit our earthly walks and gone up to his reward on high. We shall miss him, but we know where to find him. He fought a good fight and kept the faith, and has gone up to receive his crown. May God's Spirit comfort his weeping children!

E. L. GREGORY.

B. F. FERRELL.—The following memoir is taken, with little change save abridgment, from a sketch placed in the hands of the writer by Brother Ferrell several years since, in which he says: "I am the son of Theodrick and Mahaly Ferrell, born in North Carolina, Franklin County, October 12, 1817. My father and family moved to Tennessee, in Smith County, in 1818. I professed religion in 1832 and joined the Methodist Church, and was soon made class leader. In 1840 I was licensed to exhort, in 1841 was licensed to preach, and in 1842 was received into the Tennessee Conference on probation at Athens, Ala., and sent to Salem Circuit as junior preacher, with Rev. A. J. B. Foster. The Lord was with us in great mercy and power, and there were added to the Church about four hundred and twenty members." The sketch of his various appointments shows that his staying qualities were of the very best. He was sent to the country embraced in Sumner and Hendersonville Circuits for fifteen years; Goose Creek Circuit, five years; Lebanon Circuit, nine years; White's Creek, two years; Goodlettsville, three years. More than one thousand souls, such as were being saved, were added to the Church during his more than fifty years of active service. The following extract from a memorandum made by him is characteristic: "October 4, 1899.—This day I finished reading the Bible through, in connection with Clarke's Commentary, the third time." Another memorandum gives the names of one hundred and sixty-seven preachers who died since he joined the Conference. Four more preceded him between the date of the memorandum and his own ascension. It is not remarkable that the sense of isolation so pressed upon him when attending recent Conferences that after a day or two he would silently steal away. Brother Ferrell, at the time of his death, was in length of service at the head of the list in the Tennessee Conference—was nearing the close of his eighty-sixth year. He had been twice married. His first wife was Miss Douglass, of Sumner County. She was a member of one of our earliest Methodist families, of sturdy stock, cultured, gentle, and devout. To this marriage were given three sons and two daughters. His second wife was Mrs. Sophie V. Jarmon (née Alfor<sup>1</sup>), widow of Col. Shadrack Jarmon, and niece of Dr. Benjamin Drake, a distinguished preacher of the Mis-issippi Conference. Brother Ferrell entered the ministry at a period when extended circuits, calling for long rides, and multiplied protracted meetings made up largely the work of the itinerant Methodist preacher. He belonged to the class of successful revivalists. All his sermons were deeply emotional and resting on the background of an irreproachable life. His closing years were spent in the relations of supernumerary and superannuated preacher. He filled with fervent zeal and extensive usefulness all the positions to which he was called. We buried him September 8, at the old Douglass burial ground, located on the farm where he had lived for more than half a century, from a house in which Bishop McKendree often found a home. A large concourse of friends who loved him well gathered for the burial. At the request of our deceased brother, the writer, who had known him from childhood, preached the funeral discourse, assisted in the service by Rev. T. B. Fisher, of Gallatin Station, and Brothers Long and Jones, of Sumner and Hendersonville Circuits. All agreed that the text was properly chosen—2 Timothy iv. 7, 8: "I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith: henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, shall give me at that day: and not to me only, but unto all them also that love his appearing." Thus we celebrated the crowning of a Christian hero.
